The above signatories (and others as may be appended to this document) certify that each is authorized to sign any document necessary to conduct business with Immunotec International Healthcare Products Limited ("Immunotec International") on behalf of the named business entity ("the Entity") and is liable for all contracts entered into with Immunotec International jointly and severally. Each acknowledges that they are individually bound to and must comply with the terms and conditions of the Immunotec Consultant Agreement, as amended from time to time. In relation to any breach of the terms of the Agreement by any partner, member, shareholder, employee, or other individual associated with the ownership or management of the Entity, the Entity shall be jointly and severally liable for such breach with all other owners, partners, shareholders, managers, members or persons with other ownership or managerial responsibility for the entity and named above. Failure to list all appropriate persons on this Business Entity Registration form shall be grounds for suspension or termination of the Agreement as described in the Business Guide.

Any individual or entity having an ownership interest or management position with the Entity may not have any interest, legal, equitable, ownership, management, or otherwise, in any other Immunotec Consultant business. Transfers of ownership interests in Consultant's business by an entity are subject to the Immunotec International Business Guide. See the Business Guide for a description of the Transfer Policy. This form, together with copies of the entity documents described in the Immunotec International Business Guide, must be sent to Immunotec International within 30 days of the entity's enrollment as an Immunotec International Independent Consultant. If this form and the entity documents are not timely received by Immunotec International, the Consultant Agreement of the Entity shall automatically terminate.
